

K-LOVE serves the local community by talking about people and programs in the local area. If K-love went off the air, one of our choices of music and guidance would be gone. America is all about choices and one would be lost if LPFM is allowed to continue on its current course.